Oconee County & America's 250th Anniversary

During the 1700s, the Upstate was a vital backcountry corridor, home to Native American tribes, early settlers, traders, and militia forces. The region experienced shifting loyalties, frontier skirmishes, and the challenges of life along the colonial edge. These events helped influence the outcome of the Revolutionary War in South Carolina, a state that saw more battles than any other. The spirit of independence and resilience that defined the era is still deeply rooted in Oconee County today.

America's 250 Celebration offers an opportunity to honor the stories of those who lived, worked, and fought in this region—Patriots, Loyalists, Native Americans, and settlers alike—and to explore how their experiences shaped the communities we know today. Historic sites, museums, and landmarks across Oconee County help bring these stories to life, offering visitors a meaningful connection to the past.

Throughout the year, Oconee County will host special programs, exhibits, tours, and events recognizing the Revolutionary War era and America's 250th anniversary. A complete and continually updated list of these commemorative events can be found at oconeehistorymuseum.org, making it easy for visitors and residents to join in this historic celebration. Additional history of Oconee and the Revolutionary War with the QR code.

As the nation commemorates the 250th anniversary of the American Revolutionary War, Oconee County proudly reflects on its important role in shaping early American history. While Oconee County was officially formed later, the land and people of this region were very much part of the frontier struggles, alliances, and conflicts that defined the Revolutionary era in South Carolina.

 2026 Fall/Winter

Waterfalls

Yellow Branch Falls

Waterfall Zones

From modest to majestic, Oconee County is home to some of the most beautiful waterfalls in the nation! The beauty of these natural wonders offers spiritual as well as physical refreshment and renewal. The chilly waters at the foot of many falls collect in natural swimming holes, with several being family friendly. Hikes to these waterfalls range from easy to extremely difficult, and each one offers a rewarding, picturesque view upon arrival. Many of these hikes are in the Sumter National Forest and do not have reliable cell service. We recommend downloading a map or directions before you arrive. A great source of information regarding trails is the website maintained by the South Carolina State Trails Program, sctrails.net. You'll find detailed directions, distance to waterfalls, length of time required and difficulty levels.

Zone 1

Bee Cove Falls, Mountain Rest

This remote multi-tiered falls is a difficult 2-3 hour hike, but worth the effort! Head North from Walhalla on Hwy 28. Bear right onto Hwy 107 for 12.5 miles and park on the left. Walk 150 yards on the right to FS 702. The roadbed goes along the Creekside. Bear right at the 3-way intersection. Follow the less defined path and sounds to waterfalls. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.98243 W 83.06231

Big Bend Falls, Mountain Rest

Largest vertical drop of the Chattooga River is a sight to see with a 30 ft. drop. It is a difficult 3 hour walk that we recommend for adventurous, expert hikers. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.9714386 W 83.11477673

Chauga Narrows, Mountain Rest

Located on the Chauga River, the narrow 25-foot-high falls can be viewed with a moderate hike. Great picnic spot and swimming along the river. For best viewing of falls, some climbing over rocks required. North 7 miles from Walhalla on Hwy 28, left on Whetstone Road (S193) Go 3 miles to Blackwell Bridge over Chauga River. Park and follow trail for an easy ¼ mile hike. The coordinates are for the parking area, which is just past Blackwell Bridge. Park and cross over Whetstone Road to the trailhead on the other side. N 34.83412 W 83.17474

Cheohee or Miuka Falls, Mountain Rest

A 75 ft. waterfall on Townes Creek easily viewed with a 45-minute hike. This is one of two falls you can reach by hiking the Winding Stairs Trail, the other being Secret Falls. Go north from Walhalla on Hwy 28, bear right on Hwy 107 for 8 miles. Follow the Winding Stairs Trail (which starts at the right of two yellow posts). At 0.2 mile, the trail bears right (and the path from Cherry Hill Rec Area enters from left), hike 0.9 mile and bear left onto the spur trail to Miuka Falls. Go 0.2 mile to a clearing, hear the falls below. Continue straight and descend steeply to view the falls. Hike through foliage to creek. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.94126 W 83.089925

Hidden Falls, Mountain Rest

Near the head of the Foothills Trail, this 50 ft. waterfall over granite ledges can be reached with a moderate, one-hour hike. Start at the Tamassee Knob Trailhead within Oconee State Park (after the Fee Station, turn right and drive to the parking area just beyond Cabin Area 14-20. The trailhead is on the left at the Foothills Trail sign.) Cross the junction with Station Mountain Road and see a sign directing you to Hidden Falls. After about 0.7 mile, when the road splits, follow the left fork to the falls.

GPS Coordinates N 34.863524035124506, W 83.09808697003758

Issaqueena Falls, Walhalla

Pay a gate fee of $5 when entering Stumphouse Park to see Issaqueena Falls. It's an easy 5-minute walk to viewing platforms where you can view the beautiful waterfall. There is a rough trail next to the lowest platform, which leads to the base of the falls. However, the PATH IS QUITE DANGEROUS and visitors are not encouraged to try it. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.80697 W 83.12147

King Creek Falls, Mountain Rest

This 70 ft. tumble through a laurel-choked gorge is one of the best to view. Easy to moderate 30-minute hike that is sometimes slippery. Trail is well marked, with restrooms at the trail head. Family friendly beautiful sight. Kids can play in the pool at the base of the falls. You can hike the trail and view the river. Turn onto Burrells Ford Road (FS 708). Drive about 3 miles to campground parking area on the left. Hike the Chattooga Trail that begins at the end of the parking lot; go 0.3 mile past last campsite and take the first left, cross over the bridge and turn left onto the trail to the falls. Parking coordinates:

N 34.968837409946474
W 83.11840117700382

Laurel Fork Falls, Salem

Consider visiting the falls by boat instead of hiking. Witnessing the 80 ft. high falls from a boat in the waters of Lake Jocassee is a one-of-a-kind experience. There are several other falls to be viewed on the lake including Wrights Creek and Mill Creek Falls. For lake access, enter at Devils Fork State Park. Boat rentals and guided tours are available. If you opt to hike, it's 16 miles round trip. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 35.032 W 82.89592

Lee Falls, Tamassee

A bit hard to find, but one of Oconee's most picturesque falls is on Tamassee Creek. No official trail makes this a challenging hike. Best visibility in wintertime. No swimming. Last 1/4 mile is difficult with lots of boulder climbing. Park before the small bridge. Head out through the middle of the field and continue to the woods. Go 0.3 mile and take left fork, then go 0.2 mile following Tamassee Creek upstream. Trail gets rocky and forested and you need to cross the creek several times. Be on the south side of the creek to best see the falls. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.8938372032159 W 83.08144644238334

Mill Creek Falls, Salem

Located on Lake Jocassee, this waterfall is only accessible by boat. Launch from Devils Fork State Park. For exact location of the falls, stop by the Devils Fork Ranger Station for map and detailed directions.

Pigpen Falls & Licklog Falls, Mountain Rest

Perfect falls for a young family. An easy one-hour hike to two sets of falls 1/4 mile apart. Pigpen will be the first falls on the left with a great swimming hole. Licklog is a short distance further on the right, and a little more difficult to view if leaves are out. Continue on the trail a few more minutes to the Chattooga River. Nice place to swim and picnic.

GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.92535 W 83.12261

Secret Falls, Mountain Rest

A two-fer waterfall opportunity. A treacherous path for adventurous, physically fit hikers, Winding Stairs Trail leads to this waterfall off the beaten path. Continue past clearing to view Cheohee/Miuka Falls. Start hike on Winding Stairs Trail (on the right of two yellow posts—don't go between the posts, or cross over Hwy 107). At 0.2 mile, the trail bears right; continue for about 0.9 mile and bear left onto a spur trail to see Miuka Falls. From spur trail, continue 0.5 mile and when you reach the third switchback, hike cross-country in hopes of finding Secret Falls about 300 years from the trail.

Trailhead coordinates:
N 34.94140069023518, W 83.089914274178

Spoonauger Falls, Mountain Rest

Two-fer waterfall opportunity. This 50 ft. waterfall is set back into a hillside and surrounded by an explosion of shrubbery. Follow the trail approximately 1/4 mile. Cross over Spoonauger Creek. King Creek Falls and the Chattooga River are in the same area. Turn onto Burrells Ford Road (FS 708) and drive about 2 miles to parking area on the left (look for F.S. bulletin board) Hike north on the Chattooga Trail which parallels the river for 1/4 mile, then cross Spoonauger Creek and see a side trail on the right. Follow sign to reach the falls. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.9748 W 83.11478

Station Cove Falls, Walhalla

A stepped 60 ft. waterfall that forms from headwaters atop Station Mountain. An easy 30-minute hike through a gorgeous

Wright Creek Falls

Appalachian cove takes you to the family friendly wading pond at the foot of the falls. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead:
N 34.84912 W 83.07452

Whitewater Falls (Lower) Salem

A dramatic 200 ft. drop, these falls are the highest in eastern America. The Lower Falls (in South Carolina) is about half-mile down the Whitewater River from the Upper Falls (in North Carolina). The trail to the overlook is a dangerous 1.7 mile trek. Follow the blue blazers of the Lower Whitewater Falls overlook spur. (Foothills Trail is marked with white blazes.) Coordinates to Trailhead: N 35.01207485890955, W 83.00013486270025

Whitewater Falls (Upper) NC

Beginning in North Carolina and ending in South Carolina, these falls are the highest in eastern America. Easy 10 minute walk to a viewing platform at the end of an asphalt path. Stairs lead to a better viewing platform. However, it is a difficult climb back up. DIRECTIONS: From Hwy 11 in Salem, go North on Hwy 130 ten miles and follow signs to Whitewater Falls. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 35.03536 W 83.01696

Wright Creek Falls, Salem

Located on Lake Jocassee, this falls is only accessible by boat. Launch from Devils Fork State Park (parking fee required). Boat rentals and lake tours available. Stop by Devils Fork State Park for map and directions. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 35.00765858 W 82.97596997; Coordinates from the lake: N 35.00787610236695, W 82.97608771650401

Yellow Branch Falls, Walhalla

It takes approximately 45 minutes to reach the falls and 45 minutes back out. Wear shoes with good traction, pack water, and be prepared for pop-up rain storms. No cell service in the forest. Impressive 60 ft. cascade over rock ledges is a favorite destination for visitors. Hike is 3 miles round trip. CCC era picnic shelter on site. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.80601 W 83.12874

Zone 2

Brasstown Falls, Westminster

From Westminster, drive west on US 76 for 12 miles and turn left on Brasstown Road (Oconee County Road S-37). Go 2.6 miles down Brasstown Road. When the pavement ends continue 1.3 miles on the dirt road. Go right when the road forks then the parking area is .4 miles where you will see the trailhead. Brasstown Falls offers four falls ranging from 20ft. to 40ft. The trails have been updated and are more accessible. Steps along the trail lead to several viewing platforms. The left trail to upper falls has a family friendly short hike with a bridge over the creek. There are good swimming holes at both ends of the trail. Brasstown Creek BBQ is a great place to eat Fri or Sat 4-9pm cash only. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.7196 W 83.30181

Bull Sluice, Mountain Rest

Bull Sluice is a Class Five rapid on Section III of the Chattooga River. This is a popular place to view rafting trips running the rapid. It's a short .2 mile hike from the Hwy 76 Chattooga River Access parking lot. Follow the trail downhill to where it forks, and go right along the gravel trail to reach a viewing area. Depending on your mobility level, you can walk on huge rocks on the side of the river to get a better view. (The left fork takes you to a beach downstream of the rapid.) GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.81459 W 83.30384

Fall Creek Falls, Mountain Rest

Multiple falls range from 30 to 40 ft. within a 1-mile stretch. A long, steep, but not dangerous 2-mile hike made more difficult during spring and summer by foliage. Best viewing is in winter. Follow Fall Creek Road (FS 722) until it forks and take the left (west) fork. At approx. 0.7 mile, FS 722 crosses Fall Creek. Park beyond the creek. The first level of Fall Creek Falls is visible from the road. Walk up the road about 150' to a faint path. Follow it to an old logging road. In approx 25 yards you'll see the falls on the left. Follow the stream downstream, to another level of the falls—but it's strenuous due to thick foliage. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.82307 W 83.25099

Long Creek Falls, Long Creek

A 50-foot waterfall on its namesake creek just before it flows into the Chattooga

River. The 1.6 mile unofficial trail is moderately difficult and not well-marked. The last 150 ft. is very steep making it a challenge to climb out. Paddlers and rafters going down the Chattooga River can view this waterfall from the water. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.77805 W 83.31239

Opossum Creek Falls, Long Creek

The two-hour hike to this 50-ft. cascade is not dangerous, but quite strenuous. Nice picnic area and swimming in the Chattooga River. Best views when leaves are off trees or from May-June when the Rhododendron and Mountain Laurel are in bloom. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.77344 W 83.3042

Ramsey Creek Falls/Chau Ram County Park, Westminster

Beautiful 40ft. cascade over large boulders where Ramsey Creek and Chauga River meet. The falls is located inside Chau Ram County Park where a $5 parking fee applies. Lower parking lot provides roadside viewing. Good wading pond at foot of falls. Excellent swimming just a short, easy walk from the falls on well-marked and partially paved trail. Great place to camp and picnic. GPS Coordinates to Park: N 34.68145 W 83.14587

Riley Moore Falls, Westminster

Once the site of a gristmill, this waterfall measures 12 ft. high, 100 ft. wide and is a great family destination. Moderate 15-minute walk to falls, a tunnel to the left brings you up to the middle of the falls. Good swimming spot. Rough road; park at the top of the road and walk to the trailhead. GPS Coordinates to Trailhead: N 34.73969 W 83.19003

Parks

Parks are fun and economical places for the public to enjoy! In Oconee County, you'll have access to four state parks and three county parks. Each park offers adventure close to water... be it a river, lake, stream or waterfall. One of our city parks offers dual-use hiking and mountain biking trails. Speaking of trails, we are blessed with over 200,000 acres of wooded land within the Andrew Pickens Ranger District—part of the Sumter National Forest. Most of the parks offer overnight camping, RV sites and facilities for weddings or reunions. Plan a day, weekend or week to enjoy all of the things that Oconee parks have to offer. There's so much possibility for recreation and fun in our great outdoors!

Devils Fork State Park

Salem

864-944-2639

southcarolinaparks.com/park-finder

Devils Fork State Park provides the only public access to Lake Jocassee, a largely undeveloped 7,500-acre reservoir tucked deep into the Cherokee Foothills. The park is popular with families, fishermen, scuba divers and boaters who enjoy Jocassee's undeveloped setting and spectacular scenery.

Full campground amenities and modern villas are highlights of the park. The 1.5 mile Oconee Bell Nature Trail offers opportunities to spot rare Oconee Bell spring flowers, catch a glimpse of a bald eagle or peregrine falcon.

Parking is limited. ARRIVE EARLY! Depending on the season, if you're not there by 9:30a.m. you will likely be turned away.

Deep in the Blue Ridge Foothills, Oconee State Park has welcomed visitors since it was first built by the Civilian Conservation Corps in the 1930s. It's popular for its several picturesque, but non-demanding, hiking trails and its well-kept cabins and campgrounds. The park's fishing lake offer bass and bream, and the woods are full of wildlife. Adjacent to Sumter National Forest, the park serves as a jumping-off point to the nearby Chattooga and Chauga rivers, hotspots for whitewater rafting and trout fishing. The park also marks the southern trailhead for the Foothills Trail.

Additionally, the Palmetto Trail offers two trails (passages) starting or finishing at Oconee State Park. These are the Oconee Passage and the Stumphouse Passage.

The Sumter National Forest

The Andrew Pickens Ranger District is named for Revolutionary War General Andrew Pickens. This 85,000-acre portion of the Sumter National Forest serves as the gateway to the Blue Ridge Mountains of South Carolina, Georgia and North Carolina. The district office, known as the “Stumphouse” Ranger Station, is located in Mountain Rest, SC. At the ranger station you’ll find a small interpretive center, maps, and souvenir items including Smokey Bear memorabilia.

Ellicott Rock Wilderness

Congress established the 3,300-acre Ellicott Rock Wilderness in 1975 and made additions in 1984. This wilderness now contains 8,274 acres in South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia and is located about 16 miles north of Walhalla, South Carolina. Surrounding part of the 15,432-acre Chattooga Wild and Scenic River corridor, it provides a large, undeveloped area within easy driving distance of Atlanta, Charlotte, and Greenville.

Primitive Campsites

These campgrounds are first-come, first-serve, and allow you to camp with a vehicle. They have few, if any, facilities and do not require a permit. Saddle, pack and draft animals are not permitted at any of the primitive campgrounds.

- Grapevine Campground
- Long Bottom Ford / Low Water Campground

Dispersed Camping

Dispersed camping is permitted on the Andrew Pickens Ranger District. You must be at least 50 feet from rivers, streams or trails, and must be at least .25 miles from the road before setting up camp. No permit is required for dispersed camping on the Andrew Pickens District.

Ellicott Rock Wilderness Backcountry Camping

Ellicott Rock Wilderness provides an outstanding opportunity for solitude or primitive and unconfined recreation. There are no developed campgrounds in this area since it is a congressionally designated wilderness. Backcountry dispersed camping is permitted within Ellicott Rock Wilderness following dispersed camping guidelines. To further protect the solitude and sensitive riparian areas the wilderness provides, visitors group size is limited to 6 people per party while camping within the Chattooga Wild and Scenic River Corridor north of Hwy 28 bridge in the Upper Chattooga corridor.

Stumphouse Park

Stumphouse Park is a pristine 440-acre property that includes Stumphouse Tunnel, Issaqueena Falls, Blue Ridge Railroad hiking trail, the Stumphouse Passage of the Palmetto Trail and the Stumphouse Mountain Bike Park. Stumphouse Tunnel was intended to connect the railroad from Charleston to Knoxville. Digging started in 1856, but due to excessive costs, work was halted in 1859. It is approximately a quarter of a mile long and maintains a constantly cool temperature of 50 degrees year-round which makes for an easy family friendly hike. Be sure to bring a flashlight!

Located a short distance from the tunnel, Issaqueena Falls is also easily accessible. It's a quarter-mile walk from the parking lot to the observation deck. Perched on the edge of the Sumter National Forest, Issaqueena Falls cascades down 100 feet and offers captivating views year-round.

Issaqueena Falls

The Blue Ridge Railroad hiking trailhead is located at the top of the Issaqueena Falls parking lot and is 2.5 miles of easy-to-moderate hiking through the forest with amazing views of the upstate.

The dual-use hiking and mountain biking trail system at Stumhouse Park consists of 22 trails ranging from easy, intermediate and advanced to appeal to all skill levels. The Stumhouse Passage of the Palmetto Trail is accessible from the center of Stumhouse Park. The Stumhouse Passage connects with the Ross Mountain Passage and leads to the Oconee Passage within Oconee State Park. These passages are part of the The Palmetto Trail which stretches nearly 500 miles across South Carolina, from the Blue Ridge Mountains in Oconee County to the low-country of Adendaw near Charleston.

The trails at Stumhouse Mountain Bike Park can be accessed from either Stumhouse Tunnel Road or Ross Mountain Road. Both parking areas require $5 entry fee per vehicle (card at the gate) or paid online at cityofwalhalla.com/stumhouse-mountain-park-pass/.

The park also has picnic tables and restrooms. A large covered pavilion is available for rent and is a great place for a family reunion or other events. Contact the City of Walhalla at 864-638-4343 for rates and availability.

After or before visiting the park, make sure to stop in Walhalla to enjoying shopping, restaurants and brew/wine bars. Don't forget to check out the Walhalla Performing Arts Center who strives to provide a world-class facility for performances, conferences, special events and summer outdoor concerts. Enjoy a variety of artists including Wynonna Judd, The Gatlin Brothers, and The Black Jacket Symphony Series.

Stumhouse Park encompasses 440-acres and includes:

Stumhouse Tunnel, Issaqueena Falls, the Stumhouse Passage of the Palmetto Trail, the Blue Ridge Railroad hiking trail, and Stumhouse Mountain Bike Park.

PARK FEES

The cost is $5 per vehicle and $15 per bus to enter the park.

A full-time Park Ranger is assigned to manage the park and monitors whether parking hang tags are displayed on vehicles.

Hiking

Simple park trails to ambitious steep climbs, from rivers edge to lakeside, on foot or by horseback, the trails of this region offer something for everyone. The extreme adventurer and those with more modest physical ability can find a trail that suits them, one that leads to better fitness or another that leads to a beautiful waterfall.

A great source of information regarding trails is the website maintained by the South Carolina State Trails Program, sctrails.net. Trails on this site are well-described, include good directions, hike distance, length of time required, and difficulty levels.

For more trails than those listed here, you can also visit visitoconeesc.com/visit/hiking/. For hikes to publicly accessible waterfalls in Oconee County, please see the waterfall section of this guide. The trails listed here are in order of length and type.

Chattooga Trail

15.5 mile trail that runs parallel to the famous Chattooga River, and shares 8.5 miles with the Foothills Trail. It passes through some of the finest wilderness in South Carolina. The northern terminus of the Chattooga Trail is Ellicott Rock, where Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina meet. Waterfall lovers shouldn't miss this trail, since you can see King Creek, Spoonauger, Big Bend, Pigpen and Licklog Falls at points along the trail.

Fork Mountain Trail

6.4 mile trail, a spur of the Foothills Trail, starts in SC at the Sloan Bridge Picnic Area and ends in NC where it joins the Bad Creek Trail in the Ellicott Rock Wilderness Area. From there the trail eventually joins the Chattooga Trail and continues to Burrells Ford. The trail weaves along the northern flanks of Fork Mountain through numerous coves and ravines. At the junction with Bad Creek Trail you can return, or extend your hike 1.3 miles to historic Ellicott Rock.

Winding Stairs Trail

This moderately challenging 7 mile out-and-back trail takes an average of 3.5 hours to complete. Spurs off the trail will take you to both Miuka Falls and Secret Falls, although the falls are obscured by trees and not overly showy. NORTHERN Trailhead: If you start just south of the entrance to Cherry Hill Recreation Area, the hike will be downhill on the way in and challenging uphill on the way out. This trail is best hiked in the winter or early spring, especially if you plan to bushwhack through the forest to view the waterfalls. Trekking poles are recommended due to elevation changes. No cell service in the area, so screenshot map or directions prior to arrival. It's possible to be picked up by car at the SOUTHERN Trailhead which is on Tamassee Road, (also marked Cheohee Road/FS 710). Drive 2.5 miles to a small parking area and the trailhead will be on the left, just before the bridge.

Blue Ridge Railroad Trail

Trail follows the railroad bed of an incomplete section of the 19th century Blue Ridge Railroad where you can see three abandoned tunnels. The easy to moderate trail is 2.5 miles one-way. Trail head is located in Stumphouse Park, at the top of the Issaqueena Falls parking lot, and takes you through the forest with amazing views of the upstate.

Big Bend Trail

This 2.7-mile, out-and-back trail begins at the Cherry Hill Recreation Area and eventually ends at a junction with the Foothills Trail along the Chattooga River. An adventurous scramble on an unmaintained trail along the river affords views of 30-ft. Big Bend Falls, the largest drop on the Chattooga River.

East Fork Trail

Beginning at the picnic area adjacent to the Walhalla Fish Hatchery, this 2.5-mile trail is an easy hike along the bank of the scenic, fast moving east fork of the Chattooga River. The trail will take you down to the river. Beginning or ending the hike at Burrells Ford adds an additional 2.1 miles.

Oconee Bells Nature Trail

This easy, 1.5-mile loop within Devils Fork State Park gets its name from a rare wildflower that has gorgeous white blooms in the early spring. Many native plant species are identified with markers along the trail. The trailhead is behind the park office and there is an informative kiosk at the beginning of the trail.

Bad Creek Spur Trail

This easy 0.8-mile spur trail provides a connection to the Whitewater River, the Foothills Trail, Coon Branch Trail, and to Lower Whitewater Falls (via the Foothills Trail). Enter the gate to Duke Energy's Bad Creek Hydro Station on SC 130, and proceed two miles down to the marked entrance to the large trailhead parking area. Fishing, but no camping, is allowed along the Whitewater River. A designated campsite is 0.5 miles past junction with the river.

Foothills Trail Guidebook and the Official Map of Foothills Trail can be ordered through foothillstrail.org or purchased at Visit Oconee SC.

Foothills Trail

This National Recreation Trail has its southern terminus in Oconee State Park and extends to the north and east for 77 miles. Sections vary in length and difficulty. Day-hikers can access the trail from different points; thru-hikers can spend a week backcountry hiking on the trail. Maintained by the Foothills Trail Conservancy.

BIKING/HIKING TRAILS

Oconee Passage of the Palmetto Trail

Once the Palmetto Trail is complete, this moderate to difficult trail will end in Walhalla, but for now you can start from either Oconee State Park or Oconee Station. This moderate to difficult 3.7 mile biking/hiking trail starts at Oconee State Park and ends at Oconee Station (or vice versa, though it is steeply uphill from Oconee Station.) Turn right where Oconee Passage intersects with the Station Cove Falls Trail to view a majestic 60-foot waterfall.

Ross Mountain Passage

This was the 30th passage to be completed along the Palmetto Trail. It's a 5-mile hiking and biking trail that connects the Stumphouse Passage to the Oconee Passage. The trail starts in Stumphouse Park and feeds into the Oconee Passage where you can choose to go left to Oconee State Park or right to reach Oconee Station.

Stumphouse Mountain Bike Park

Stumphouse Mountain Bike Park is located within Stumphouse Park. Phase 3 is complete with 22 trails now open. Many of the trails are dual-use for hiking and biking so users need to be aware of directional signs and posted right-of-way protocols. Bike trails include: beginner trails, down-country trails, back country trails, intermediate downhill trails, advanced downhill trails, a pump track and dual slalom trails. (Pedal-assist bikes are allowed; but motorized vehicles are prohibited.) To access the trails, users can either park at Stumphouse Park or at the parking area off Ross Mountain Road; both require a $5 entry fee per vehicle.

Stumphouse Passage

This trail can be accessed within Stumphouse Park. It is one of dozens of passages (trails) that make up the Palmetto Trail—which stretches across the state of South Carolina. The Stumphouse Passage has 1.5 miles of hiking trails and 9 miles of mountain biking trails that are appropriate for all skill levels.

HORSE TRAILS

The Rocky Gap/Willis Knob Horse Trails consists of “backcountry” trails that are enjoyable for horses and their riders. The trails wind through the scenic Southern Blue Ridge Mountains where the terrain is mountainous with lush forest and wide river crossings.

TRAIL NOTES:

- Riders can follow trails that will put them in both South Carolina and Georgia.
- The Rocky Gap Trail (SC) is 19 miles long with several loops.
- Willis Knob Trail (GA) is a continuous 15-mile loop.

- The trail on the South Carolina side (between Big Island Ford, and Adeline Ford) goes past a water source known as Nicholson Spring.
- The Chattooga River is free-flowing and water levels fluctuate widely depending on rainfall upstream. Use caution and be aware of the water level the day of your ride.
- Depending on the water level, riders are likely to get their boots (and possibly legs) wet during river crossings. Dress appropriately.
- The river bottom has drop offs and the current and depths change frequently creating potential dangers for inexperienced horses and riders. It is recommended not to cross the river if the level is higher than 2.0 ft.
- There are three fords along the Rocky Gap/Willis Knob trail system where riders can cross the Chattooga River from South Carolina on one side and be in Georgia on the other side: Earl's Ford (furthest downriver crossing), Big Island Ford (middle crossing) and Adeline Ford (northernmost crossing).

Rivers & Lakes

Water, water, everywhere... whether it's rafting, kayaking, fishing, boating, paddling, or swimming, visitors can't wait to enjoy our variety of water activities on one of our rivers or lakes. The great outdoors of Oconee County offers endless opportunities for all ages. Enjoy whitewater rafting, a leisure float, fly fishing, kayaking or swimming on one of the rivers, or rent a boat and spend the day on one of the lakes soaking up the rays. Paddle boats, kayaks and boat rentals are available. For the extreme adventurer, scuba diving in Lake Jocassee might be right up your alley. Your enthusiasm for outdoor activities at our lakes or rivers is boundless.

RIVERS

Chattooga River

The 19-mile stretch of the Chattooga National Wild and Scenic River is known for its history, whitewater rapids, and meandering, mountainous woodland passage. Its lower passage is considered among the best of whitewater trips, with heart-thumping Class III to Class VI rapids.

And while the Chattooga may be the most popular, it is not the only refuge for mountain trout. Oconee County's Chauga River also offers a multitude of coldwater runs, riffles, pools and flatwater that play host to a wealth of both native and stocked fish. Fly fishermen may want to consider using a guide on these rivers.

Though the area is beautiful and often peaceful, the currents and undercurrents of the river can be dangerous. Guide services are recommended, and please note that the US Forest Service has regulations for use of Chattooga. Contact the Sumter National Forest Ranger's Office at 864-638-9568.

The US Forest Service commercially permits three companies to operate on the Chattooga for rafting and instructional canoeing and kayaking clinics. One other company offers rental equipment and shuttles to and from river access points.

■ Kayaking

Oconee County, South Carolina is a kayaker's dream come true. Whether you are a whitewater or flat water kayaker, Class 2 or Class 5 enthusiast, there is plenty here for you!

The Chattooga River offers everything from flat water to Class 5 and runs year-round. Keep in mind: the Chattooga is a "Wild & Scenic" River, which means it is free flowing and NOT dam controlled.
Water levels are dependent on the amount of rain the area receives. So plan your kayaking trip accordingly. The most popular sections of the Chattooga are Section III and Section IV. Section III is about 13 miles of mostly Class 2 and 3 rapids. Section IV is about 7 miles of mostly Class 3 and 4 rapids, with a bit of Class 5 depending on the water level.
As for flat water kayaking, there are calm sections along the West Fork of the Chattooga River in Section II.

Chauga River

Outdoor recreation and sporting enthusiasts will want to take advantage of the lakes, rivers and mountains of Oconee County. The rugged terrain of the Blue Ridge Mountains offers the perfect setting for all sorts of active pursuits. Hiking, camping, hunting, fishing, swimming, mountain biking, golfing, and bird-watching are just a few of the activities enjoyed by visitors to the area.

The 9.8-mile path of the Chauga River offers much of the same scenic beauty and cool waters found on the Chattooga. Both whitewater and relaxing flat water are found on the Chauga. A popular destination is the Narrows, a 25 foot waterfall accessible from a short hiking path west of Walhalla off Hwy 28 on Whetstone Road. The river is a great destination for picnics and day hikes. The Chauga is popular with anglers; as trout can be caught in many of the smaller streams. Good river access and parking are available from Cassidy Bridge on Cassidy Bridge Road.

LAKES

With four stunning lakes there's plenty of opportunity to enjoy the water! Our lakes are less crowded Monday-Thursday. On weekends lake parking lots fill up early, so plan to arrive in the morning.

As you might expect, Monday-Thursday are less crowded days on the lakes. On weekends lake parking lots fill up early in the day. Plan to get there in the morning. If you want to be guaranteed a spot to park at Lake Jocassee, you can pay to reserve a parking space. Devils Forks State Park
(the only public access to Lake Jocassee) accepts online day-use reservations for a limited number of parking spaces.

At the southern end of Oconee County,
Lake Hartwell is one of the Southeast's largest and most popular public recreation lakes, and often referred to as "the Great Lake of the South."

Lake Tugalo is fed by the Chattooga (SC) and Tallulah (GA) Rivers. Backed up by the Tugalo dam, the lake is a peaceful spot and a great place for fishermen. If you raft or kayak down Section IV of the Chattooga River, this is the lake where you end up.

Lake Hartwell

Lake Hartwell was built by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers between 1955 and 1963 and has consistently been one of the top three most-visited Corps lakes in the nation, with an estimated 14 million people visiting annually. Hartwell comprises nearly 56,000 acres of water with a shoreline of 962 miles, 262 of which border Oconee County. Over 20,000 acres of public land surround the lake. The Corps operates nine campgrounds, 15 major day-use areas and numerous other lake-access areas.

Lake Hartwell State Recreation Area is a popular camping and boating destination, as are Coneross and Oconee Point Campgrounds located on the Seneca River arm at the northern end of the lake. Oconee is host to 18 boat ramps, several picnic and swimming areas, and vacation rental homes. For additional information, contact Lake Hartwell's visitor information center at 803.225.3832 or visit the Lake Hartwell Marketing Alliance website at MyLakeHartwell.org.

Lake Jocassee

Oconee County offers some of the most beautiful lakes found anywhere! Lake Jocassee is considered the “crown jewel”, with deep clear water and a back drop of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Miles of undeveloped shoreline surround Lake Jocassee; and from the lake you can paddle up to and even under some of the most beautiful waterfalls in the world. Kayak rentals, clinics and guided trips are available on the Chattooga River and Lake Jocassee.

The only place for the public to access Lake Jocassee is off Hwy 11 via Devils Fork State Park—the #1 visited state park in South Carolina! The 7,500-acre lake in the middle of the Blue Ridge Mountains is a popular destination for families, fishermen and bird watchers. Devils Fork State Park offers first-class amenities but the parking capacity is limited. Arrive early on weekends to ensure a place to park. You can check for reservations at reserve.southcarolinaparks.com.

Lake Keowee

Lake Keowee is generally more accessible, as well as more developed, with public boat ramps maintained by both the Oconee County Department of Parks, Recreation & Tourism and Duke Energy. There is public access at various places on the lake. Keowee’s north end offers cooler water and a closer view of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Northern access points:

- Mile Creek Park
- Crow Creek Access Area
- Keowee Towne Landing
- Fall Creek Access

Southern access points:

- South Cove County Park
- Cane Creek Access
- High Falls County Park
- Stamp Creek Access Area
- Keowee Marina

Chattooga Ridge Canopy Tours takes you through multiple ecosystems and into grand old white bark and maple treetops. The zipline features over ½ mile of air time with 2 sky bridges, 10 ziplines between trees and platforms, 4 zips across Academy Lake, and ends with the 1100 foot Bell Tower Express that launches off a 50 foot tower. Chattooga Ridge Canopy Tours provides two Canopy Rangers for each group to give insight on wildlife and area history while guiding you through the trees. Located in Long Creek at Wildwater Ltd. wildwaterrafting.com

W. South 4th St., Seneca, SC 29678
864-885-2709
The T.W. "Shorty" Shaver complex encompasses 33 acres, is home to the Seneca Recreation Department, and is a hub for area sports activities. With seven recreation fields, two gyms, walking trails, a greenway trail, climbing wall and the Seneca Disc Golf Course, there is no shortage of options.

■ SWEET RETREAT FUN CENTER

Branch Rd Walhalla, SC
864-885-0887
Fun for all ages young and old. Whether you need to stock up on chocolates for the holidays or just bring your kids by the arcade; stopping by will brighten up any day.

Their facility offers a mini golf course, go-carts, and an arcade that includes over a dozen different games and laser tag. The laser tag arena is over 3,000 square feet and holds up to 20 players at a time. Please call for party information.

■ CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

Enjoy the thrill of major university sports, cultural events and the lifelong learning courses at nearby Clemson University. The 1,400-acre campus lies on both sides of Lake Hartwell and is only 20 minutes from Lake Keowee.

■ EQUESTRIAN CENTER

Whether you are a horse owner, a riding enthusiast, or simply looking to enjoy a day on horseback, the Equestrian Center at The Cliffs at Keowee Vineyards offers facilities and programs geared toward enjoying access to more than 200 miles of scenic riding trails through the Jocassee Gorge State Park. Spend a day seeing the nature of the surrounding area from a different vantage point. For those without their own horse, trail rides may be booked through Saddle Creek Vistas which offers guided tours surrounding Lake Keowee.

■ GOLF

Chickasaw Point Golf Course

503 S. Hogan Dr., Westminster, SC
864-972-9623

This scenic course is home to an abundance of wildlife, including turkeys, deer and fox. This lovely 18-hole, par-72 course with four sets of tees provides enjoyable play for all skill levels. Each hole is separated from the other, giving players the sense of being alone on the course as they enjoy the ever-changing beauty of Chickasaw Point Golf Course. The course is open to the public.

Cross Creek Plantation

130 Club Dr., Seneca, SC 29678
864-882-8337

This private golf course was built on rolling hills and is heavily wooded. There are water hazards that come into play at least ten times. The fairways are well bunkered, and the small greens are undulating.

Oconee Country Club

781 Richland Rd, Seneca, SC 29672
864-882-8037

This semi-private golf club is a well-maintained course. The signature hole is #15, a 470-yard par 5, allowing the longer hitters to reach the green in two if they are willing to hit an approach shot over a lake that is positioned 100 yards in front of the green. Golf Simulator allows for a round of golf rain or shine.

The Walker Golf Course

210 Madren Center Dr, Clemson SC 29634
Clemson University
864-656-0236

The course is open year-round for public play. Golf holes wind through rolling hills and hardwood forests and some holes border Lake Hartwell. Individual memberships are available. Public golf course also has pickleball courts. Tavern restaurant is open Tuesday-Saturday for lunch and dinner.

Windsor at Walhalla

1308 Falcons Dr, Walhalla, SC 29691 864-638-0000 windsoratwalhalla.net

This scenic countryside course offers beautiful views of the mountains. It features several hilly fairways, and water hazards come into play on several holes.

Keowee Key Golf & Country Club

1 Country Club Dr., Salem, SC 29676
864-944-2222

This course, located in the foothills, is part of a private residential community.

MINI GOLF

The Oasis Ranch Mini Golf

170 Hackberry Lane, Seneca SC 29678
864-539-2848
18 Hole mini golf course and Botanical Garden hidden away on Wells Highway in Seneca. The Oasis Ranch showcases hundreds of species of plants, as well as koi of all sizes, bullfrogs, lizards, four red eared, and five yellow bellied slider turtles. They aren't your average putt-putt course. Golf Simulator allows for a round of golf rain or shine.

DISC GOLF

Seneca

An 18 hole course at the Shaver Recreation Center features tight fairways and a nice mix of elevation changes throughout the course. Several holes have multiple pin placements. The course is open year round and is free to play. Random draw doubles Mondays in the summer at 6pm.

Walhalla

Sertoma Field

A recreation complex for area sports activities and the site of the annual Oktoberfest celebration. Facility has two playgrounds, restrooms, walking track and disc golf course.
N. Catherine St, Walhalla

Westminster

For adventurous players, Chauga Rapids Disc Golf Course is a must-play. Set within the rugged terrain of Chau Ram County Park, this 18-hole layout is a hike as much as a round of disc golf. Steep elevation changes, tight wooded fairways, and sweeping overlooks make each throw both physically demanding and visually rewarding.

VISIT OCONEE SOUTH CAROLINA

Located in the northwestern "Upstate" or "mountain lakes region" of South Carolina, Oconee County is blessed with lush forest landscape (over 85,000 acres), three lakes surrounded by the Blue Ridge Mountains, 29+ waterfalls, two free flowing rivers (one of which is the Wild and Scenic Chattooga), waterfront state and county parks, mountain bike trails, and more!

Visit Oconee, SC is a destination leadership organization focused on sustainable growth of the travel industry in Oconee County, SC. A thriving travel industry diversifies and improves the local economy while respecting and preserving our natural resources for the benefit of future generations. Our mission statement is: Visit Oconee, SC promotes sustainable visitation to all parts of the county by highlighting our spectacular natural assets and promoting our communities, local events, entertainment venues, museums, shops, restaurants and lodging.

If you are looking for area information, want to bring a group, plan a reunion, have your wedding, host a retreat, or run an event in Oconee County, please reach out to us or come visit our Visitor's Center in Walhalla, SC. We would love to help you plan the perfect getaway.

Visit Oconee, SC's Visitors Center hours are Tuesday-Friday 9am-5pm and Saturday 10am-2pm.

Our office phone number is 1-800-910-4371 and email is info@visitoconeesc.com

www.VisitOconeeSC.com

Whether you are a visitor or a resident,
Visit Oconee, SC, Oconee County Chamber of Commerce and Oconee Economic Alliance invite you to "Think Oconee"

Think Oconee is a collaborative countywide initiative that builds an Oconee-first mindset by helping people see, value, support, and steward the people, places, and experiences that make Oconee County thrive. The mission is to inform, connect, and activate people across Oconee County to recognize local value, support one another, and make choices that strengthen our communities, businesses, and natural places.

Examples of how to "Think Oconee":

- Eat at an amazing local restaurant in Oconee County.
- Shop for gifts at our local stores instead of online.
- Visit a local museum or see a show at our performing arts centers.
- Explore our beautiful waterfalls and pick up a piece of litter while on the trail.
- Book a tour or rent a boat to go out on our beautiful lakes or rivers.
- Plan a "staycation" to explore a part of the Oconee County you haven't seen.
- Help your neighbor or volunteer with our incredible non-profits.
- Visit or shop at a local farm or roadside farm stand.
- Use your business to help the community that you are located in.

Agricultural Tourism

Agriculture is woven into the fabric of Oconee County, and there's no better way to experience our community than by exploring the farms, orchards, and markets that make this place so special. From the mountain orchards of Long Creek to family-owned farms and seasonal farmers markets throughout the county, you'll discover fresh flavors, beautiful scenery, and authentic experiences around every corner.

We invite you to slow down, take the scenic route, meet the people behind your food, and experience the genuine hospitality that makes Oconee County unlike anywhere else. We hope you'll leave with a deeper appreciation for our farming community and memories that bring you back for years to come.

Walhalla

Located in the middle of Oconee County, Walhalla is one of the last South Carolina cities to stop in before trekking into the mountains for local hiking trails, or a short, scenic drive to Lake Jocassee or Highlands, NC. Walhalla will be the terminus to South Carolina's longest pedestrian and bicycle trail, The Palmetto Trail. The newly constructed Stumphouse Mountain Bike Park offers miles of world class mountain bike trails.

Salem

Salem is located just off the beautiful Scenic Highway 11 in Oconee and is the gateway to both the Blue Ridge Mountains and the lakes of Jocassee and Keowee. Originally a lumber town with six sawmills, Salem became an agricultural town latching onto cotton production. Today it is well known for outdoor activities and mountain adventures. Lake Jocassee is one of the most pristine lakes in South Carolina with several waterfalls that can best be reached by boat.

south carolina

small town charm right here

The City of Westminster is a small town in Oconee County along the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. With lovely crepe myrtle-lined streets, it's full of charm with quaint shops along its historic Main Street. Residents enjoy a leisurely paced lifestyle, and are afforded a wide variety of recreational opportunities by the surrounding rivers, lakes, forests, mountains and golf courses.

Westminster is a great place to visit, but it's even a nicer place to live and work. With award winning schools, a small town feel, and a progressive plan for continued renewal, it offers families and retirees a perfect place to call home.

Stroll the street and enjoy the wonderful architecture. Westminster boasts more than one hundred homes that are unique to the turn-of-the-century. Many local merchants and home owners proudly display a quilt block on their building that is representative of a family heirloom.

Westminster

Westminster embodies a small town full of Southern charm. It's widely known for the Apple Festival that happens every year the week after Labor Day. It's just a short ride from town to Chau Ram County Park. You can enjoy swimming, fishing, hiking, and camping. Ramsey Creek Falls is a great choice for families to view before it empties into the Chauga River. From the park you can hike four miles of trail along the river.

Long Creek

Long Creek is a rural community that borders North Georgia. Being surrounded by the Sumter National Forest and the proximity to the Wild & Scenic Chattooga River makes Long Creek a whitewater destination. People visit to go rafting, kayaking, swimming, fishing, hiking and zip through the trees. Long Creek is well suited for growing apples and peaches. Seasonal roadside markets sell locally grown fruit and homemade products. One of our premier event venues, Chattooga Belle Farm, is located in Long Creek.

Discover the World of Energy

A Hub of Interactive Learning

Each day our lives center around energy. Duke Energy's World of Energy education center has been an active part of the community and teaching visitors of all ages about energy for over 50 years.

The center overlooks Oconee Nuclear Station, which provides clean, 24/7 electricity to approximately 2 million customers.

The World of Energy features educational exhibits, interactive games, plus a nature trail, butterfly garden and wildlife habitat. And be sure to check out our website for teaching resources and virtual education materials.

Annual Events

Oconee loves to celebrate, which is why you can find an event to honor heritage, food, history, music, culture and more. There are enough events to make your trip memorable no matter the time of year. Discover community events celebrating festivals, outdoor concerts, sports events and fairs.

Start the year hiking to see the rare Oconee Bell Flower in March. April gets under way with live outdoor music including Jazz on the Alley and First Friday with Music on Main starting in May. The Fall kicks off with SC Apple Festival. Celebrate Oktoberfest all month long and don't forget to feast on a German bratwurst. One weekend is dedicated for the hunt of the illusive Bigfoot. December closes out the year with special light shows, house tours, caroling and more. There is something for everyone!

World of Energy at Oconee Nuclear Station

A hub of interactive learning.

From learning how electricity is produced to enjoying a picnic along the picturesque shores of Lake Keowee, the World of Energy offers something for everyone.

Located at Oconee Nuclear Station in Seneca, S.C., the center opened in 1969 during the station's construction. Since that time, more than 3 million people have passed through our doors.

With three nuclear reactors, Oconee Nuclear Station is one of the nation's largest nuclear power stations, providing customers safe, reliable, carbon-free electricity for decades.

Find out more about discoveries that await you:

Relocate

Often residents of Oconee were previous tourists who came for a visit but decided to stay for a lifetime. Locals enjoy the small-town charm mixed with adventure, culture, boutique shops, craft beers, fine wines, rare spirits and Southern culinary treats. The county offers a variety of landscapes and is conveniently located an hour and a half from several large metropolitan cities. If you have ever dreamed of living in a lakefront home, enjoying Blue Ridge Mountain sunsets from your back porch, or having majestic scenery anywhere you drive, then Oconee County is the place for you!

*It doesn't matter where you go,
it matters where you stay!*
